Winthrop University

one of America's best

WINTHROP UNIVERSITY

where students live, learn and lead

Founded in 1886, Winthrop University is rated as one of top regional higher education institutions in the nation. The picturesque campus is ideally located in the beautiful upstate section of South Carolina in the growing city of Rock Hill and only 30 minutes from uptown Charlotte, North Carolina.

With its 100-acre main campus and 300-acre athletic complex, Winthrop is home to a student body that numbers nearly 6,400. Unique academic course offerings and modern, well-equipped facilities guarantee a national-caliber education. Winthrop, students excel in an academic environment that is second to none.

President
Comstock

'We are Eagles, come fly with us'

Dr. Jayne Marie Comstock became the 10th president in Winthrop's 128-year history on July 1, 2013.

She, her husband Larry A. Williamson and Cocoa, their 9-year-old Chesapeake retriever, now make the President's House at Winthrop their home.

Comstock has extensive experience as a senior-level academic administrator and a national reputation in the area of higher education leadership. Most recently, she served as the director of the Executive Leadership Group for American Council on Education (ACE) in Washington, D.C. Prior to joining ACE, Comstock served as the chief academic officer at three different universities, most recently at Butler University.

- ◆ Ph.D in communication from the University of Arizona

Winthrop Athletics

Tom Hickman
Athletic Director

Tom Hickman, the dean of Big South Conference athletic directors, is in his 18th year as Winthrop's director of athletics.

Prior to his appointment to that post in 1996, Hickman was the associate athletic director for seven years.

The North Carolina native is a graduate of Wake Forest where he received his bachelor's degree in 1970 and his master's degree in 1974.

Hickman is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

He is a former member of the NCAA Div. I Management Council, the NCAA Legislative Review and Interpretations Committee, and the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee. He formerly served on the NCAA Div. I Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

He serves on the Big South Conference Budget and Basketball Tournament Committees.

He and his wife Karen, are the parents of two sons, Wesley and Brett, a daughter, Lauren, and a granddaughter, Aubrey Simone Hickman.

Academic & Student-Athlete Services

Winthrop Athletics is strongly committed to the welfare and support of its student-athletes through its Academics, Student Services and Compliance offices.

A variety of resources are available to student-athletes in the Rock Hill Coca-Cola Academic Resource Center which is housed in the Winthrop Coliseum. The academic staff works closely with its student-athletes throughout their entire experience at Winthrop to ensure their academic success.

Graduation Is Our Goal

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program provides Winthrop student-athletes with personal development opportunities that challenge and enhance the collegiate experience. The program is designed to provide leadership and service learning experiences. In addition, programs and seminars address career development, and academic and personal pursuits.

Athletic Training

Winthrop provides five full-time certified athletic trainers along with three graduate assistant trainers who are dedicated to attaining excellence in all aspects of sports medicine.

Led by the veteran head athletic trainer Jeff Lahr, the staff works hard to deliver the highest quality health care to all of its student-athletes. Lahr, the Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Training, is in his 19th year at Winthrop. The full-time staff of assistant athletic trainers includes Daniel Lundy, Charlie Hart, Amber Radtke and Eby Krebs. Several students enrolled in the University's athletic training program are also involved in helping with daily training room and game management duties.

The University athletic training department is teamed up with Dr. John Temple, a former member of the Winthrop men's basketball team who serves on staff at Ortho Carolina, to provide the best healthcare for its student-athletes.

Strength & Conditioning

Since Winthrop began its Strength and Conditioning program a little over 10 years ago, it has become a key component to the success of Winthrop Athletics. The program was created to aid in injury prevention and improve athlete performance. All student-athletes receive personal instructions and attention from head strength coach Hayes Galitski and his staff that includes assistant coach Todd Riedel and graduate assistants.

Galitski is responsible for designing and implementing the strength and conditioning programs for all 18 sports teams. He works closely with each individual coaching staff to design a program that is geared for that particular sport.

Winthrop offers a modern and well-equipped strength and conditioning facility in the coliseum as well as the baseball stadium.

Head Coach ~ Bruce Atkinson

Bruce Atkinson, who has a reputation for building championship programs on both the NCAA Div. I and Div. II levels, was named head volleyball coach at Winthrop in February 2013.

Atkinson joins the Eagles from Towson University just outside Baltimore where he served as head coach for the past three years. He directed the Tigers to the 2012 Colonial Athletic Association regular season championship with a 12-0 conference record and a 25-4 overall slate. His 2011 team compiled a 23-9 record and he was voted the 2011 and 2012 CAA Coach of the Year. In his first season at Towson, he took over a program that had gone 8-21 the previous year and finished the 2010 season with a 16-15 record which included a 10-0 mark to start the season, the best start in program history.

Prior to arriving at Towson, Atkinson served as head coach for three years at the University of Hawaii at Hilo, a Div. II school, where he led the Vulcans to a 23-5 record in his first season and was selected the 2007 PacWest Coach of the Year. Hawaii-Hilo posted a 21-7 record in its second season under Atkinson and finished second in the league. In 2009, Atkinson and the Vulcans carried a top 20 ranking for most of the season and finished with a 25-2 record as the team made its first postseason appearance in over a decade and Atkinson earned PacWest Coach of the Year honors for the second time.

Before taking over at Hawaii-Hilo, Atkinson served as the head coach at the University of Texas Brownsville for a year. He got his first head coaching job in 2004 at Dana College where he was also an assistant professor of physical education. He began his coaching career in 1999 as an assistant women's volleyball coach and health and physical education instructor at Merced College where he served for five seasons

The 45-year-old California native holds a degree in Exercise Science from Brigham Young University-Hawaii in 1993. He also received a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from Southern California University of Health Sciences in 1996. He is married to the former Junae Kekauoha

Assistant Coaches

Michael King

Michael King was hired as an assistant volleyball coach at Winthrop in July of 2013.

King comes to Winthrop from the University of Portland where he was the Associate Head Coach since 2008. With Portland, King helped guide the team to its best conference record in more than 15 years.

Prior to joining Portland's staff, he served on the staffs at Eastern Washington (1998-99, 2002), Concordia (2000) and Alabama-Birmingham (2001-02). At Eastern Washington he helped guide the Eagles to the NCAA Tournament in 1998 and 1999.

King also has experience coaching on the scholastic level where he coached at David Douglas High School in Portland, OR from 2004-2008.

As a collegiate player, King played for Santa Barbara City College and the University of California Santa Barbara.

He earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Western Oregon and his Masters of Arts from Concordia.

King is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is also a former instructor for the National Institute of Speed, Agility and Quickness.

King's wife, Erin, was a four-time national champion in synchronized swimming at Ohio State and later served as the head coach of the Puerto Rico National synchronized swimming team and recently won two Gold Medals at the World Master Games.

Kaley Viola

Kaley Viola, former Winthrop volleyball standout, was hired as an assistant coach in August of 2013.

Viola played for Winthrop from 2007 to 2010 all under former coach Sally Polhamus. Viola finished her career with 3,323 total attacks which ranks her seventh all time for the Eagles. She also accumulated 1,054 kills, 996 digs and 163 total blocks. She was also twice named to the Big South 2nd Team All-Conference in 2009 and 2010.

Viola coached from 2010-2013 with the Rock Hill Volleyball Club having coached 15-1 Power Plus, 14-1 Power Team and 14-3 Club Team.

In May of 2011 Viola graduated with a degree in Psychology. Viola returned to school the following August and completed her Master's Degree in Sports & Fitness Administration in May of 2013 and worked as a graduate assistant in the Strength and Conditioning department in Winthrop athletics.
